

I oppose in the strongest terms weakening the Indiana no-call list in any way. I signed up for the list because I value my privacy and I consider telemarketing an intrusion on that privacy. I do not care if I have a "business relationship" with a firm or not. I do not believe that gives them the right to intrude into my home. If I wish to do business with them, I will contact them, otherwise, I would prefer to be left alone. I do not even agree with allowing charitable organizations to be exempt from the law. As I stated earlier, if I wish to do business with them, I will contact them myself. I supported the enactment of the Indiana Do Not Call List, and I do not want to have that law weakened. Doing so would go against the wishes of the people of the State of Indiana who fought for the law and who wish it to remain in effect. Thank you.
